

TINSEL'S ULTIMATE HOLIDAY PARTY CHECKLIST

- ☐ An unexpected spin on twinkle lights. We like a ceiling filled with disco balls, a light-up dance floor, and a heavy dose of neon.
- ☐ A 4-sided bar that gives guests easy access to something to toast with.
- ☐ All velvet everything -- furniture, pillows, dress code, and even down to the tablecloths.
- ☐ Seasonally specific speciality cocktails like eggnog, mulled wine, or whiskey on the rocks with a sprig of rosemary. Inspired by a recent trip to Mexico City where we saw these all over, we are especially loving the idea of mobile bar carts (because wheels roll!) that are fully stocked with accoutrements that allow guests to have their own unique cocktails crafted based on their favorite ingredients and flavor profiles.
- ☐ We love all gold everything all year round, but it's really the perfect foundation for any holiday party color palette. We love it paired with black, ivory, navy, indigo, and more gold.
- ☐ A dynamic, gorgeously designed photobooth that give revelers a chance to play in a way that's more than simple posing.
- ☐ A theme for the party that inspires guests to get creative with their definition of formal attire. We like something extra unexpected like outer space, underwater, bank heist, boogie nights. BYO mistletoe.
- ☐ All the fringe, tassels, and tinsel that money can buy. It makes for a striking moment over any dance floor and works well as an interactive photobooth backdrop.
